

ESCALATION · BEHAVIOURAL NUDGING · PLAUSIBLE POLITENESS

When nudging is not enough.

M² Poking Service is the passive-aggressive escalation layer: when a gentle nudge goes unanswered, we automatically open a Teams chat with a perfectly-chosen GIF and a warmly-worded reminder of the shortcoming — so accountability arrives without anyone having to raise their voice.

CORE PROPOSITION

"Just
back 🙏"

Read receipts weaponised, professionally. Consequences delivered with a reaction GIF and deniable warmth.

WHY POKE, WHY NOW

Escalation with a smile emoji.

For the gap between “I already reminded them” and “I refuse to have the actual conversation.”

01 / TRIGGER

Auto Teams chat creation

The moment a nudge is ignored, a fresh 1:1 opens itself. You did not schedule it. It is simply here now.

02 / GIF

Contextual GIF selection

An AI-picked reaction GIF that says “no worries!” while unmistakably meaning something else entirely.

03 / TONE

Passive-aggressive tone engine

“Just circling back — no rush, only urgency.” Calibrated to sting politely and deny plausibly.

04 / RECEIPT

Read-receipt weaponisation

We know you saw it. It knows you saw it. The GIF knows you saw it. Everyone is being very professional about it.

THE PROPRIETARY ESCALATION ARCHITECTURE

The Poke Ladder™

nudge → poke → GIF → 🙏

Each rung more polite on the surface and more pointed underneath.

When the nudge is ignored, the Poke Ladder™ escalates automatically — never louder, only warmer, until the shortcoming is acknowledged or the recipient quietly complies.

PK-01 Detect the ignored nudge

We watch for the unanswered ping, the unread message, the deadline that came and softly went.

SILENCE DETECTION

PK-02 Compose the poke

Open a Teams chat, attach the ideal GIF, and phrase the reminder so it is technically friendly and undeniably pointed.

WARMTH WITH AN EDGE

PK-03 Escalate, gently

No response? The tone stays kind while the frequency does not. "Per my last poke 🙏."

RELENTLESS POLITENESS

A perfectly-chosen reaction, every time.

Curated for maximum plausible deniability and minimum eye contact.

• "No worries if not! 😊 "

• slow clap

• "this is fine" dog

• tapping watch

• "friendly reminder" cat

• thumbs up (aggressive)

• "still waiting..."

• 🙏 hands

"Just gently circling back on the thing from three weeks ago.
No pressure! 🙏"

— M² POKING SERVICE · AUTO-GENERATED REMINDER #4

Disclaimer. Fictional satire, not a real product and not workplace, HR or communications advice. Do not actually deploy passive-aggressive automation against colleagues — real accountability is a conversation, not a GIF.

Escalate responsibly. Automatically.

Every tier includes read receipts, one GIF and a follow-up you did not ask for.

01 · NUDGE+

Single Poke

One automated Teams chat, one impeccable GIF, one reminder that lands somewhere between kind and pointed.

OUTPUT: acknowledged shortcoming

02 · LADDER

The Poke Ladder™

Escalating reminders at rising frequency and steady warmth, until a response arrives or dignity quietly departs.

OUTPUT: eventual compliance

03 · RETAINER

Poking-as-a-Service

Continuous monitoring of every open loop, with GIFs on standby, so no failure ever goes un-circled-back-upon.

OUTPUT: perpetual accountability

ENGAGEMENT TRIGGER

You bring the ignored message. We bring the chat, the GIF and the undertone.

Book a 30-minute escalation session — or ignore this, and we will open a Teams chat about it. 🙏
