

FACKLIGT ARBETE BY M&M FUFFENS CONSULTING AB · FOUNDATIONAL STAKEHOLDER INFRASTRUCTURE

Collective voice, individually aligned.

Union work is not a side quest. It is a foundational pillar of the operating model: the place where people, mandate and inconvenient questions are converted into decision-ready dialogue.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

More mandate. Less meeting fog. Unclear outcomes, now with governance.

A trademarked method for making collective representation sound like a high-velocity enterprise capability without removing the humans.

ONE OF OUR CORE PILLARS

Fackligt arbete, but make it strategic.

We bring structure to the space between “we should probably discuss this” and “the mandate is clear enough to proceed”. Our approach is human-centred, process-aware and suspicious of unexplained urgency.

VOICE

Collective intelligence with a calendar invite.

M&M-01 Representation as an operating layer

Ensure the employee perspective is not bolted on after the “real” decision has already happened.

BUILT IN

M&M-02 Dialogue before escalation

Convert tension into a documented conversation before it becomes an executive learning opportunity.

LOW DRAMA

M&M-03 Mandate with traceability

Make it visible who said what, why it matters and which “quick alignment” created the situation.

AUDIT-ISH

TRADEMARKED SOLUTION · PROPRIETARY-ISH

Introducing the Union Alignment Nonsense Engine™

A premium framework for aligning collective concerns, stakeholder narratives and the unspoken context everyone assumed was already understood.

UANE™ / V1.0

HUMAN-IN-THE-LOOP

MANDATE AWARE

BUZZWORD COMPLIANT

THE PRODUCT SURFACE

Four modules.
One shared reality.

Deploy individually, or activate the full stack when the organisation has reached a level of complexity that deserves its own acronym.

UANE-01 / MANDATE

Mandate Mapping

Translate “we have heard concerns” into a map of who is represented, what is agreed and which assumptions are doing unpaid overtime.

OUTCOME · VISIBLE LEGITIMACY

UANE-02 / NARRATIVE

Negotiation Narrative

Build a common storyline where business needs, employee impact and the uncomfortable middle can coexist without a 47-slide appendix.

OUTCOME · ALIGNED AMBIGUITY

UANE-03 / ESCALATION

Escalation-to-Dialogue

Identify the exact moment a disagreement becomes useful, then label it “constructive friction” and schedule the right people.

OUTCOME · PREMIUM TENSION

UANE-04 / MEMORY

Collective Memory Layer

Preserve decisions, context and lessons learned so the organisation does not lovingly recreate the same conflict next quarter.

OUTCOME · REUSABLE WISDOM

THE ALIGNMENT SEQUENCE

Because none of us should negotiate alone.

WE + VOICE = ✦

Collective representation, elevated into a surprisingly confident service catalogue.

Our proprietary nonsense does not replace judgement, dialogue or actual union expertise. It simply gives them a nicer operating model and a product name that sounds expensive.

UANE-01 Listen with structure

Capture the concerns, the context and the thing people only say after the meeting has officially ended.

SIGNAL ACQUISITION

UANE-02 Align without flattening

Find common ground without pretending every difference is a formatting issue.

RESPONSIBLE CONVERGENCE

UANE-03 Act with a record

Move forward with clarity, documented trade-offs and fewer future archaeology projects.

TRACEABLE MOMENTUM

OPERATING PRINCIPLES

Solidarity, but with a framework.

We use consultant language as a delivery mechanism.
The actual payload is listening, representation and collective agency.

01 / HUMAN

People are not tickets

Never mistake a workforce concern for a backlog item with a slightly emotional description.

02 / CLEAR

Clarity beats theatre

If the decision requires three layers of fog, it probably needs one more honest conversation.

03 / SHARED

Mandate is a team sport

When responsibility is collective, accountability should not be outsourced to a single exhausted person.

"The future of work is not frictionless. It is friction-literate."

ENGAGEMENT TRIGGER

Bring the mandate. We'll bring the trademark.

For busy times, complex conversations and organisations that need collective voice to be more than a late-stage consultation checkbox.
